LEADERSHIP letter BY STEVE MARTIN, PRESIDENT & CEO

Can you believe it, Round-Up for Rehab is right around the corner. For 65 years,

West Texas Rehabilitation Center and our patients have been so blessed by our farming and ranching families. Whether it be a donation of a bale of cotton, a bushel of grain, an animal, or cash donations, the agricultural community has always been there to support our patients, their families, and our communities.

Over the years, as sale barns have closed, folks have still found a way to help. A Christmas ball in Snyder, a Valentine's Day dance in Breckenridge, or a shrimp peel in Sweetwater are all examples of creative ways our agricultural families continue to find ways to help us fulfill our mission. We are grateful for their support and certainly hope you will join us at one of our many Round-Up events this fall, which begin with our Fort Chadbourne kickoff dinner August 17th.

As of August, we have $45.8 million committed to our new building campaign, which is 53.85% toward our goal. Please read about this important project (on page 5) and help us reach our goal of making a new home for West Texas Rehab in Abilene a reality. We cannot do this without you, as well as the folks you know and can visit with about this project. So... please don't hesitate to reach out and inquire about how you can get involved. Please take 5 minutes to click on the QR code and watch the video about this life-changing project.

What an amazing summer it has been for our patients! We held our summer day camps for 200 kids in both Abilene and San Angelo in May and June and have had many other camps for kids throughout the summer. We are able to hold these camps free of charge due to the kindness and support of our volunteers and donors. In fact, the folks at our Sweetwater Shrimp Peel in Sweetwater, Texas actually underwrite the costs of the 100 campers each year for the Abilene camp and, if you have never been to this event, you are definitely missing out. The Sweetwater Shrimp Peel is November 5th this year, so check our website for details about this and many other events throughout the year.

As I often say, we cannot do what we do each day without the kindness and support of our volunteers. I hope you will take the time to read about Craig and Jimmy Barton, as they are two amazing examples of giving of themselves, their time, and their resources to positively impact the lives of others. They consistently step up where needed to positively impact West Texas Rehab and our surrounding communities.

We are so grateful for the recent rains but please continue to pray for more - especially for our ranching and farming communities, as their livelihoods depend on it, and our country depends on them. May God always bless you and your families, West Texas Rehab, the great state of Texas, and may God Bless America.

Respectfully,

Steve Martin, President/CEO

Round-Up for Rehab

KENT Harris

Kent Harris loves to ride motorcycles.

In fact, he says his whole life he has enjoyed the thrill of the ride. First a horse, then a tractor, a beat up truck and a fast car...he's loved the excitement of them all! But June 19th, 2023 will forever be a day that the ride should have taken his life.

“Well, it was like any other Sunday morning bike ride with my buddies. We were headed towards Knickerbocker on the EQ, I was daydreaming, took the corner too fast, skidded across the line and drove head first into a Dodge pickup truck. The only thing that saved me was my helmet. Yep, I should be dead!” Kent exclaims. But mercifully, through the quick action of his riding buddies and first responder, Kent did live. “When I awoke in the hospital, 7 days had passed. I don't remember anything about the accident. My wife had to explain what had happened.” Kent explains.

After only 11 days, Kent was released from the hospital and sent home. You can only imagine the injuries he sustained. He had countless broken bones, a fractured jaw, internal bleeding, and a major concussion; just to name a few. “But the worst part was my right hand. It was completely numb from the elbow down. I'm a mechanic and without the use of my hand, I can't work. To say I was scared and frustrated is an understatement,” Kent says.

With what felt like nowhere to turn, Kent made an appointment with his primary care physician. She immediately referred him to West Texas Rehab to begin physical therapy. “At my first appointment with my physical therapist, Luz'ce, I had no idea what to expect. I was in so much pain. I just knew it would be torture. But Luz'ce quickly eased my fears and helped get me motivated. I went from a walker, to a cane, to walking independently.

She also helped me with the pain I was having at night trying to sleep by giving me home exercises and adjusting my treatment plan to account for my hip and back pain. I am so grateful for her.”

Kent was taking steps in the right direction on his recovery, but was still very concerned about his right hand. The numbness continued and he grew more worried he wouldn't be able to return to work. Kent told me, “I work for an amazing company, Angelo Pellets Kubota. I am their tractor mechanic. My boss, Mr. Tom Latham, assured me that I would always have a job to return to and to just focus on my recovery. With that reassurance, I was even more motivated to get my hand healed and get back to work!

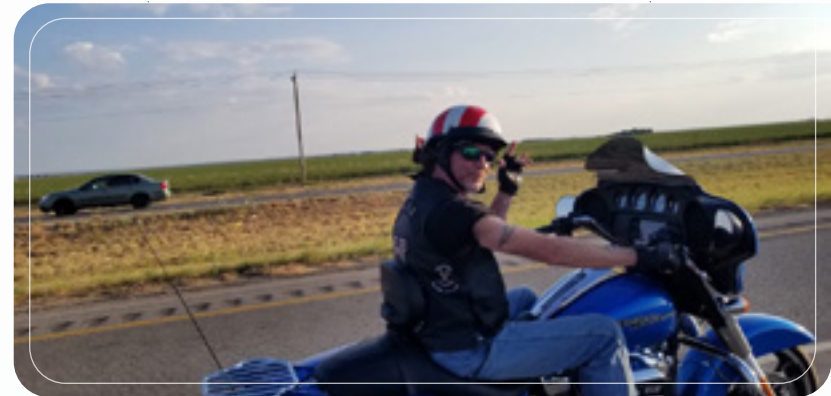

Tom Latham, Owner/Operator of Angelo Pellets Kubota, had this to say about Kent, “We always take care of our key employees because, if you take care of them they will take care of you. Kent is not only a great mechanic but he is dependable and works hard. That is not easy to find.”

Tom has been involved with West Texas Rehab as a donor since he bought Angelo Pellets in 1995, and explains, “We support West Texas Rehab, especially their Round-Up for Rehab, because it closely involves local ranchers and farmers throughout the Concho Valley. It's just a good deal all around and we are happy to be involved.”

Mr. Harris was lucky to have Angelo Pellets Kubota as an employer, and they are lucky to have a dedicated and hard working employee like Mr. Harris.” Matt Wymore, occupational and certified hand therapist says.

Kent's story, just like Round-Up for Rehab, is a true testament to the “neighbor helping neighbor” philosophy! And, because of our generous donors, we can ensure patients like Kent receive the care they need... close to home! This long-standing tradition started over 60 years ago when Coke County ranchers Conda and Edna Wylie saw a need to help the West Texas Rehab Center. They had no available cash to give, so they donated some cattle, and the Round-Up for Rehab was born! To this

After being discharged from physical therapy, Kent started occupational therapy to address the additional concerns with his hand. “At our initial evaluation, we found out he was a lead mechanic and needed the feeling and use out of his hand to be able to do his job. Mr. Harris went through a rehab process that allowed him to get full flexibility back of his fingers and wrist, and his feeling returned where he could use tools and return to work with full use of his arm and hand. His employer was fantastic to work with throughout the rehabilitation process, and that is something that we do not always have happen. I would say that

Kent returned back to work at Angelo Pellets Kubota in October of 2023! “I am not working full days yet, and I have a ways to go, but I am so happy to be back and providing for my family. I know day, Round-Up for Rehab remains our oldest standing fundraising event! Many folks have no idea how they can afford the help they so desperately need, but because of the generous support of our farm and ranch community, the West Texas Rehab Center is able to carry out our mission of improving the quality of life of those we serve regardless of financial circumstances. And for that without the help of West Texas Rehab, Luz'ce and Matt, this would not be possible. And for that I am extremely grateful!”

“We are extremely grateful!”

A Philosophy of Giving

If you are from the Concho Valley and involved in the livestock business then you have probably heard the names Craig and Jimmy Barton. Also, if you're from the Concho Valley and are involved in the livestock business, you are probably familiar with West Texas Rehabilitation Center and their Round-Up for Rehab program. But you may not know how the Barton's and West Texas Rehab have become intertwined and how they have taken the Round-Up for Rehab's philosophy of 'neighbor helping neighbor' to another level of giving!

How They Got Started

Being in the livestock business his entire life, Craig Barton was raised in a farming community northwest of Lubbock, Texas. He grew up showing livestock, primarily pigs and steers. He attended South Plains College, judging livestock, then went on to attend and graduate from Texas Tech University.

He managed a commercial cattle herd for 20 years.

Craig's son, Jimmy, grew up on the commercial cattle ranch southeast of Christoval, Texas. He showed lambs in 4-H and FFA, which had a big influence on the Barton's interest in the sheep business. He attended South Plains College and went on to earn a degree in Business Management from Angelo State University. He has been married to his wife Carol for 25 years and has one daughter, Landry, who is entering her junior year at Texas Tech University.

Together in 1990, Craig and Jimmy founded Barton Club Lambs, a black face sheep club lamb operation. Barton Club Lambs have won at most of the major shows in Texas as well as many out-of-state fairs.

How We Got Started

In 1960, West Texas Rehab's Round-Up for Rehab was born when Coke County ranchers Conda and Edna Wylie donated the first pen of cattle to West Texas Rehab in lieu of a monetary donation. Sixty-five years later, Round-Up for Rehab continues to raise awareness through livestock sales in multiple counties. Throughout the year, local ranchers can get involved by donating an auction item, cotton, grain, or livestock to one or more of our special Round-Up sales. Round-Up for Rehab remains West Texas Rehab's oldest running fundraiser.

Neighbor Helping Neighbor

Several years back, the Barton's offered to house and care for the lambs and goats that were to be sold at the Lamb and Goat Round-Up for Rehab Sale which takes place in Breckenridge, Texas in June. West Texas Rehab's Donor Relations Round-Up Coordinator, Doran Reynolds, would round up the livestock and take them to the Barton's ranch until the sale date. It was a natural fit because the Barton facilities were made for show animals and they had plenty of room that time of year for the stock. In May of 2024, Doran experienced some unforeseen health problems which left him temporarily unable to work. Craig and Jimmy didn't hesitate to step in and help! They volunteered to take on what Doran was not able to do by splitting up the work, calling past donors who had given, soliciting new donations, hitting the road to gather up the animals, housing and caring for the animals and ultimately ensuring they got to the Round-Up sale for auction at Breckenridge. No strangers to volunteering, Craig and Jimmy have a long history of giving when the need arises! They are founding members of the Texas Lamb Breeders Assn. and Craig served as President for many years. Craig and Jimmy have both served on the Christoval Volunteer Fire Dept. for 30 years. Craig is currently the Fire Chief and Jimmy is President of the board. It has been a passion for both of them and the fire department has transformed into a first class operation under their guidance as well as the help of others. Jimmy currently serves as the Vice President of the San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo Association.

We can all learn something from Craig and Jimmy about the importance of giving back. Truly selfless, they are the definition of the philosophy for which Round-Up for Rehab stands... 'neighbor-helping-neighbor'.

So thank you Craig and Jimmy, from all of us, at West Texas Rehab, our hats are off to you!
